“UET has stimulated my intellectual curiosity!”

GIACOMO MORABITO

University of Messina (Italy)
PhD exchange student

Applying to the European University of Tirana (UET) as a PhD visiting student is one of the best decisions of my life. UET has stimulated my intellectual curiosity and provided me with the tools, in terms of academics and social immersion. I am learning a lot in this period, and being part of the academic and social community, such as going on regular lunches with professors to talk about all matters of life, is an amazing and unique experience. I love almost every day this beautiful city, which is a prime geographic location that provides you with the opportunity to travel all over Balkans.
