

Prof. Dr. Esmeralda Kromidha completed her graduate studies at the French Language Department of the Faculty of Foreign Languages, University of Tirana and graduated in 1996. She completed her Master's studies at Denis Diderot University – Paris VII in France and then her Ph.D. studies at the Faculty of Foreign Languages, University of Tirana.

Prof. Dr. Esmeralda Kromidha has been in leadership positions and has contributed to the institution, as: Deputy Dean of the Faculty of Foreign Languages (2008-2012), Head of the French Language Department (2012-2016), Deputy Rector of the University of Tirana (September 2020 – May 2021). Currently, she is the Dean of the Faculty of Foreign Languages and a member of the Academic Senate of the University of Tirana.

Her main research areas are: Linguistics - Didactics of foreign languages, Methodology of scientific research in teaching/learning foreign languages, Intercultural education, Communication in the field of tourism.

Prof. Dr. Esmeralda Kromidha has a wide contribution to national and international scientific publications and references. She has been and continues to be a leader and a scientific collaborator in international research projects. She has also lectured at several foreign universities as part of Erasmus+ exchanges or other projects.

During her academic experience, in addition to her dedication to teaching, she has been the leader or the co-organizer of numerous educational, scientific and cultural activities in collaboration with national and international partners.

Prof. Dr. Esmeralda Kromidha holds the title "Outstanding Francophone Personality" for her contribution to the promotion of the French language by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Albania.